Subject: Dimock Results

Hi, Terri -

I'm writing because your name was on the press release regarding the water tests at Dimock, PA on January 19, 2012 — please let me know if there's a more appropriate contact person.

I was wondering if the preliminary results mentioned in several news stories have been released yet and, if so, where I might find them on EPA's website.

Thanks and best regards,

Kevin
